Sentences

When we speak or write, we use sentences. A sentence is a group of words that has meaning. It starts with a capital letter (e.g. A, B, C, D, E) and finishes with a full stop (.), question mark (?) or exclamation mark (!).

STATEMENT

A statement can be positive or negative. A positive statement states facts or opinions that we think are true.

We use negative statement to say what we think is not true.

A negative sentence usually has not or n't in it. It usually has words like cannot / can't	has not / hasn't	is not / isn't should not / shouldn't	have not / haven't	are not / aren't will not / won't	do not / don't	was not / wasn't must not / musn't	does not / doesn't	were not / weren't would not / wouldn't	did not / didn't

There are three kinds of article: definite, indefinite and zero.

1. Definite article: the
2. Indefinite article: a or an
3. Zero article: do not use the or a or an

The article is usually placed in front of a noun. Usually, it is next to the noun.

Sometimes it is separated from the noun.

Example: There was a man near the door. [ NEXT TO ]
There was a tall, slim man near the door [ SEPARATED ]

DEFINITE ARTICLE

The definite article is used in front of:

1. Nouns of only one kind. The noun can be just one thing, e.g. the sun, or a group of things, e.g. the stars.
2. Nouns of only kind in a certain place or situation.

Situation	Person or thing
School	the headmaster the staffroom

3. Nouns which have already been mentioned.

Example: He bought a bone for his dog. When the dog saw the bone, it began to bark.

4. Nouns which represent groups in general. For example, THE WHALE can be used to represent ALL WHALES.

Example: The whale is mammal.

5. Superlatives ————— See 5. Adjectives.

ZERO ARTICLE

Zero article means there is no article in front of a noun.

There is no article ( $\emptyset$ ) in front of:

1. Plural (countable) nouns to express a general idea.
2. Uncountable and abstract nouns.
3. Names of countries, towns and people.

Example:  $\emptyset$  Apples are delicious.

Example:  $\emptyset$  Sugar is bad for you.

Example: She has  $\emptyset$  cancer.

INDEFINITE ARTICLE

[ A OR AN? ]

We use an in front of nouns that begin with a, e*, i, o, u*.

Example: an apple, an egg, an Indian, an office, an umbrella

* But use a in front of nouns like: a unit, a university, a European.

Situasi	Orang atau benda
Sekolah	the headmaster (kepala sekolah) the staffroom (petugas ruangan)

3. Nomina yang sudah disebutkan dalam kalimat sebelumnya.

FEELINGS	ACTION WORDS	ACTION or THING?
Use verbs like be, feel and seem to show how you feel and who you are.  Example:  I feel hot.  I am angry.  My name is John.	Our actions are what we do.  Example:  I hit him.  I creid.	An action is a verb. ## WHO DOES WHAT?

The doer is the subject of the verb. If you want to say who the subject is, the verb is ACTIVE.

Verba (Kata Kerja)

VERBA adalah kata yang membuat kita mengetahui apa yang seseorang LAKUKAN atau RASAKAN atau SIAPA orang tersebut.

PERASAAN	KATA AKSI	AKSI atau BENDA?
Gunakan verba seperti be, feel, dan seem untuk menunjukkan apa yang Anda rasakan dan siapa Anda. Contoh:  I feel hot.  I am angry.  My name is John.	Aksi kita adalah apa yang kita lakukan. Contoh:  I hit him.  I cried.	Aksi adalah verba. Namun terkadang aksi terlihat seperti sebuah NOMINA di dalam suatu kalimat. Kata ini disebut gerunds (nomina yang dibentuk dari verba ditambah -ing). Contoh:  Smoking is bad for you.  Jogging is good for you.

SIAPA MELAKUKAN APA?

Orang yang melakukan pekerjaan adalah subyek dari verba. Jika Anda ingin mengatakan siapa subyeknya, maka verbanya adalah verba AKTIF.

Subyek	Verba Aktif	Akhir
I Mrs. Smith	ate washes	the apple. the dishes.

[ SUBYEK + VERBA ]

Ketika kala kini digunakan, subyek he, she dan it mengubah ejaan dari verba.

Contoh: I wash, you wash,
he/ she/ it washes,
we wash, you wash, they wash

[ PASIF ]

Verba dibentuk pasif apabila Anda tidak ingin menggunakan subyek. Dalam hal ini aksi menjadi lebih penting daripada si pelaku.

Contoh: The floor was swept.
Who swept the floor?
We do not know.

SIAPA MELAKUKAN APA?

Ketika Anda melakukan sesuatu terhadap SESEORANG ATAU BENDA maka orang atau benda itu adalah obyek dari verba.

Subyek	Verba	Obyek
She	watched	television.

Ketika Anda dapat meletakan obyek setelah verba maka verba tersebut disebut dengan verba transitif.

BENTUK PASIF

[ VERBA INTRANSITIF ]

Jika Anda tidak dapat menaruh sebuah obyek setelah verba maka verba tersebut disebut intrasitif.

Subyek	Verba Intransitif	Tidak Ada Obyek
She The boy	died. cried.	X X

HANYA VERBA TRANSITIF YANG DAPAT DIBUAT MENJADI PASIF.

I swept the floor. (obyek)

~~The floor was swept.~~

HOW TO FORM THE PASSIVE

TO BE (any tense) + PAST PARTICIPLE

- |                 |                       |                               |
|-----------------|-----------------------|-------------------------------|
| Example: | 1. Past tense         | The floor was swept.          |
|                 | 2. Present Tense      | The floor is swept every day. |
|                 | 3. Present Continuous | The floor is being swept.     |
|                 | 4. Present Perfect    | The floor has been swept.     |
|                 | 5. Future             | The floor will be swept.      |

TIME WORDS

Verbs are also time words. They tell us when an action takes place, e.g. past, present, future or no particular time.

TENSE

Tenses are used to show whether the timing of an action is on-going, partly completed, fully completed, not started yet or not particularly fixed.

FULLY COMPLETED : Past tense, Past perfect

PARTLY COMPLETED: Present Perfect

ON-GOING : Present, Past and Future continuous (or progressive)

NOT FIXED : Present tense

NOT STARTED : Future time

[ PRESENT TENSE ]

No particular time

The present tense is used for:

- |   |                                |
|---|--------------------------------|
| • THINGS THAT NEVER CHANGE              | He works in Tokyo.             |
| • HOW PEOPLE FEEL                       | I am angry.                    |
| • ACTIONS THAT HAPPEN FROM TIME TO TIME | They play football every week. |
| • WHAT PEOPLE LOOK LIKE                 | She is tall and thin.          |

[ PAST TENSE ]

Fully completed past actions

The past tense is used for an action that happened in the past. The action is completed. You usually add ed to the verb.

Example: walked, shouted, washed.

These are called regular verbs. However, you cannot add ed to some verbs. You have to change their spelling. These are called irregular verbs.

Example: buy – bought      eat – ate      give – gave

[ PAST PERFECT ]

Partly completed actions

The past perfect is used for completed actions that happened before a certain other action in the past.

Example: He felt cold. He had forgotten to bring his coat.

[ PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE CONTINUOUS OR PROGRESSIVE ]

These continuous tenses indicate an action that is on-going at a particular point in time. It has started but has not finished.

Example: It is raining.

I was shopping (when the earthquake happened).

Verba Transitif: Bentuk Pasif (lanjutan)

BAGAIMANA MEMBENTUK KALIMAT PASIF

TO BE (kala apa saja) + PAST PARTICIPLE

- Contoh:
1. Kala lampu The floor was swept.
  2. Kala kini The floor is swept every day.
  3. Kala kini kontinu The floor is being swept
  4. Kala perfektum kini The floor has been swept.
  5. Kala mendatang The floor will be swept.

KATA PENUNJUK WAKTU

Verba juga merupakan kata yang dapat menunjukkan waktu. Verba memberi tahu kita kapan sebuah aksi terjadi, misalnya di masa lalu, sekarang, masa depan, atau tidak ada waktu spesifik.

KALA

Kala digunakan untuk memberi tahu kita apakah sebuah aksi tengah berjalan, hampir selesai, sudah selesai, belum dimulai atau tidak menunjukkan waktu yang pasti.

- SUDAH SELESAI : Kala lampau, Kala lampau perfektum
SETENGAH SELESAI : Kala kini perfektum
SEDANG BERJALAN : Kala kini, lampau dan kala mendatang kontinu (atau progresif)
TIDAK PASTI : Kala kini
BELUM DIMULAI : Kala mendatang

[ KALA KINI ]

Tidak ada waktu spesifik

Kala kini digunakan untuk:

- HAL YANG TIDAK PERNAH BERUBAH He works in Tokyo.
- BAGAIMANA PERASAAN SESEORANG I am angry.
- AKSI YANG TERJADI DARI WAKTU KE WAKTU They play football every week.
- SEPERTI APA PENAMPILAN SESEORANG She is tall and thin.

[ KALA LAMPAU ]

Aksi di masa lalu yang sudah selesai dilakukan

Kala lampau digunakan untuk aksi yang terjadi di masa lalu. Aksi ini sudah selesai dilakukan. Biasanya tambahkan ed pada verbanya. Contoh: walked, shouted, washed.

Verba ini disebut verba beraturan/regular. Walaupun begitu tidak semua verba dapat ditambahkan ed. Ada verba yang Anda harus ganti ejaannya. Verba ini disebut dengan verba tidak beraturan/irregular.

Contoh: buy – bought      eat – ate      give – gave

[ KALA PLUPERFEKTUM ]

Aksi yang baru terpenuhi setengahnya

Kala lampau perfektum digunakan untuk aksi yang sudah dilakukan dan terjadi sebelum aksi lainnya terjadi di masa lalu.

Contoh: He felt cold. He had forgotten to bring his coat.

[ KALA LAMPAU, KINI DAN MENDATANG KONTINU ATAU PROGRESIF ]

Kata kontinu mengindikasikan bahwa aksi ini sedang dilakukan pada satu titik. Aksinya sudah berjalan namun belum selesai.

Contoh: It is raining.

I was shopping (when the earthquake happened).

[ FUTURE TIME ]

Actions not yet started

We use different ways to indicate an action that will happen in the future, e.g. tomorrow, next week.

1. WILL or SHALL (making a prediction/ expressing willingness)

Example: He will win.
I'll help you.

2. PRESENT TENSE (for fixed times and dates)

Example: My train leaves at 6 a.m.

3. PRESENT CONTINUOUS (for future plans and arrangements)

Example: I'm meeting John at lunch time.

4. GOING TO (for expressing intention or expectation)

Example: I'm going to kill you.
It is going to rain.

NO TIME!

If time is expressed in one verb already, the next verb may not need to express time—so the infinitive form will be used.

Example: He went (past time) to meet his mother.

[ THE INFINITIVE ]

The infinitive is the basic form of the verb. Usually it is used with the word to after certain verbs like want, like, try, ask and decide.

Example: I want to go.

Sometimes, there is no to, especially after modal verbs. See 8. Auxiliary Verbs.

Example: You must go.

THE CONDITIONAL

Sometimes we use different tenses to show different degrees of certainty. There are three common conditionals:

CONDITIONAL A	CONDITIONAL B	CONDITIONAL C
If + Present Tense + will. This is used when you are quite sure that something will happen. Example: If I catch the thief, he will go to jail.	If + Subjunctive* + would, should, etc. This is used when you are quite sure that something will NOT happen. Example: If we were clever, we would catch the thief (but we are not clever, so we will probably NOT find the thief). (*It looks like the past tense.)	If + Past Perfect Tense + would have, should have, etc. This is used to show that something did NOT happen. Example: If we had stayed awake, we would have seen the tiger (but we definitely did not stay awake so we did NOT see the tiger).

Tenses: Kala Nanti (lanjutan)

[ KALA MENDATANG ]

Aksi belum terjadi

Kita menggunakan cara yang berbeda untuk mengindikasikan aksi yang akan terjadi di masa depan, misalnya: besok, minggu depan.

1. WILL atau SHALL (membuat prediksi/ menunjukkan keinginan)

Contoh: He will win.

I'll help you.

2. KALA KINI (untuk waktu dan jam yang sudah pasti)

Contoh: My train leaves at 6 a.m.

3. KALA KINI KONTINU (untuk rencana masa depan dan persiapan)

Contoh: I'm meeting John at lunch time.

4. GOING TO (untuk menunjukkan maksud/ harapan)

Contoh: I'm going to kill you.

It is going to rain.

TIDAK ADA PENANDA WAKTU!

Jika waktu sudah ditunjukkan di dalam satu verba, maka verba selanjutnya kadang tidak perlu menunjukkan waktu—jadi bentuk infinitif yang akan dipakai.

Contoh: He went (sudah dilakukan) to meet his mother.

[ INFINITIF ]

Infinitif adalah bentuk dasar dari verba. Biasanya digunakan dengan kata to setelah verba tertentu seperti want, like, try, ask dan decide.

Contoh: I want to go.

Terkadang, tidak terdapat to, terutama setelah verba modal. Lihat 8. Verba Bantu.

Contoh: You must go.

PENGANDAIAN

Terkadang kita menggunakan kala yang berbeda untuk menunjukkan derajat kepastian. Terdapat tiga jenis pengandaian:

PENGANDAIAN A	PENGANDAIAN B	PENGANDAIAN C
If + Present Tense + will. Ini digunakan ketika anda cukup yakin bahwa sesuatu akan terjadi. Contoh: If I catch the thief, he will go to jail.	If + Subjunctive* + would, should, dan lain-lain. Ini digunakan ketika anda cukup yakin bahwa sesuatu TIDAK AKAN terjadi. Contoh: If we were clever, we would catch the thief (but we are not clever, so we will probably NOT find the thief). (*Bentuknya terlihat seperti kala lampau)	If + Past Perfect Tense + would have, should have, dan lain-lain. Ini digunakan untuk menunjukkan bahwa sesuatu di masa lampau TIDAK terjadi. Contoh: If we had stayed awake, we would have seen the tiger (but we definitely did not stay awake so we did NOT see the tiger)

Auxiliary Verbs

There are MAIN verbs and there are AUXILIARY verbs. The main verb is the most important verb in the sentence. An auxiliary verb is a kind of “helping” verb—it supports the main verb in order to:

- help with the grammatical organization.
- help by adding new meaning.

THERE ARE TWO KINDS OF AUXILIARY VERB

PRIMARY AUXILIARY VERBS

These verbs help out with the GRAMMAR.
These are three: do, have, be.

Passive : It was broken.
Present Continuous: I am coming.

What do you want?
BE : Is she a dancer?

NEGATIVES

They are used to form negatives.

Example:

DO : I don't like him.
BE : He isn't very nice.
HAVE: I haven't seen him.

MODAL AUXILIARY VERBS

These verbs bring added meaning of possibility, ability, permission, obligation, etc.

can	could	dare
may	might	must
shall	should	need
will	would	ought to used to

NOTE

Modals do not have -s forms, -ing forms or -ed participles.
